

On-Site Visit Suggestion ONE: Why We're Here

Activity: Pop-Up Booking Making

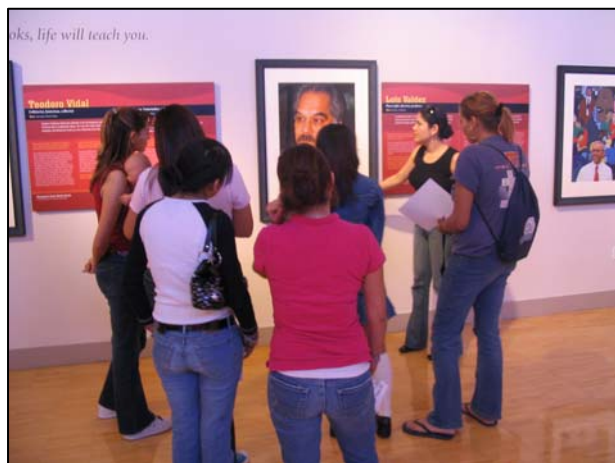

Worksheets and instructions on how to construct a pop-up book will be sent to you once the on-site reservation is made. The book will need to have been made prior to visiting the Memorial. During the visit, students participate in a ranger talk about the significance of the Memorial and then complete their worksheets. Students are then sworn in as Junior Rangers. Each student will receive a Junior Ranger badge and pin.

On-Site Visit Suggestion TWO: Now Showing

Activity: varies with each exhibition

Students tour the Los Paisanos Gallery, and learn about the artist(s) and the work presented in the gallery.

Activities can range from sketching and writing response statements to a quick hands-on activity that replicates some aspect of the artworks.

1 to 1½ hours

On-Site Visit Suggestion THREE: The Science of Poster Making

Activity: Crayon Resist Painting

Posters created for various festivals throughout the Memorial's history will be the jumping off-point in a discussion concerning composition and color choice. Students will participate in a brief Ranger talk and will make a new poster for the Memorial or their school.
